

LEUTHARDT, Caryn Ann (Flemmer)

Caryn LEUTHARDT | 27 January 1976

CARYN ANN⁹ FLEMMER (CHRISTIAN JOHN⁸, DAVID CHRISTIAN⁷, CHRISTIAN LUDVIG⁶, CHRISTIAN LUDVIG⁵) was born on 27 January 1976 in East London, South Africa. She married GRANT LEUTHARDT on 21 September 1997 in Durban, Natal, South Africa. He was born on 5 August 1964 in Eshowe, Zululand.

I was born in East London, South Africa – on 27 January 1976 to Christian John and Linda Flemmer.

My two sisters (Wendy and Angela) and I spent many happy years growing up in East London. I went to Clarendon Girls Primary School and then on to Clarendon Girls High School. I was head prefect of the Primary school. Throughout my school career I was active in all spheres of dancing, swam for the swim team and participated in the speech and debating society. I matriculated in 1993.

I then went on to study in Durban at Natal Technikon. I completed a 3 year National Diploma in Food and Nutrition. This is where I met my husband – Grant Theo Leuthardt (from Swiss descent)

My father died due to a fatal heart attack on 10 May 1994. I was only 18 at the time, and we were absolutely devastated.

Grant and I were married on 21 September 1997 – in Durban. We have two beautiful daughters – Bridget Ann (born 25 February 1998) Sarah Ann (born 12 May 2000)

We live in Cowies Hill, Durban. The girls go to local Westville schools.

I have been lecturing part-time for Varsity College since January 1999 – I lecture food and nutrition related subjects. I love what I do, and consider myself one of the few lucky ones who love their jobs. I have since studied an OBE teaching qualification. Grant works for Aspen Pharmacare in their sales and marketing department.

I am a busy home-maker, and am always in the kitchen. And I love being a mommy!
